

www.wooclap.com/YHKLGY

What is your experience with integrating ICT course with Knowledge and Curriculum Course?

IT WAS A GREAT WAY TO UNDERSTAND BOTH THE TOPICS AT THE SAME TIME. ONE WAS THE METHOD AND OTHER WAS THE APPLICATION OF IT.

helped me understand better because of the integration.

It was a great session with hands on experience and helped connect both the topics

It was a great learning experience. Learnt something new.

It is a wonderful experience which made learning easier

It was a nice learning experience by integrating two subjects; one being theory and one more of technical ICT is a tool which would enable me to bring life to the topic which I would be teaching. Students learn better when they learn by watching live processes.

It has made the learning easy.

S. Sankar

Principal
St. Xavier's Institute of Education, Palakkad-26

wooclap

Questions 1 / 1

Messages

85 %

Exit

47

www.wooclap.com/RPUJIG

Participatory Curriculum development's Role of teacher

S. Shival

Develop content that is engaging to the student based on the teachers expertise understanding students

Observation and Consideration of Students and teachers understanding

Connecting the curriculum with the students' lives

Develop an engaging lesson plan

To design the curriculum as per students skills and

To integrate values and discipline teachers play an important role as they include activities, experiments with their

To provide guidelines for effective teaching

The role of teacher is to understand students and get the to level of students and explain concepts

To give inputs about various topics based on the students level of understanding

Is to keep the students engaged throughout the lecture

Teachers know the background of students and therefore can decide and assemble their curriculum with the

To bring about upliftment of society through education

To prepare and build the subject based on examples and case studies the teacher is the one who puts the curriculum to use in the classroom and thus they ensure whether resources and equipment are available for the curriculum

A teacher can discern whether that particular topic fits into the time frame that will be provided to the students

To upskill using skill sets, build mental capacities and develop disciplinarian behaviour creating lesson plans and syllabus

To upskill, build mental capacities,

They have knowledge about the subject and they are the ones observing the students as well

The teacher will be able to have more of activities based learning as they know which age group they need to plan

To develop a engaging relationship between learner and syllabus

Proper Planning

To illuminate the darkness of illiteracy

wooclap

Questions 1 / 1

Messages

100%

Exit

51